VA Question And Answers

Editor's Note: Following are representative questions answered daily by VA counselors. Full information is available at any VA office.

Q - How may a former servicemen obtain a copy of his lost or destroyed report of separation from service?

A - Any VA office will provide a form on which he may request a duplicate from the National Personnel Records Center in St. Louis. In addition, if the former service person had his discharge recorded with his county upon separation from service, he may be able to get a copy from that source.

Q - How much burial expense is paid by VA upon the death of an honorably separated war time veteran?

A - A burial allowance not to exceed $250 plus an amount not to exceed $150 toward cost of a burial plot or interment if not buried in a national cemetery. Payment not to exceed $800 may be made if the veteran's death is found by VA to be service-connected. Additionally transportation costs are paid in certain instances.

WE LIVE HERE. WE WORK HERE. OUR WHOLE INTEREST IS HERE.

The people who work in our bank also live in this area. This is our neighborhood and we naturally feel a strong personal commitment to the area in which we both work and live. As a result, you'll find we all have a vested interest in this, our community, and the ways we can work to help our community grow.

When you use our bank and our many services, you are using your HOMETOWN BANK. You are being served, in effect, by neighborhood people. It's our job to see that you receive individual attention, the kind of personal attention you would expect from a neighbor.

INDEPENDENT BANKING

You'll also find our officers and directors are actively involved in community organizations and affairs, along with the involvement of the rest of our staff who take a personal interest in the financial well-being of each and every member of our community.

As a result, when you have money management problems, you can feel free to openly discuss them with any of our people. We listen and in turn help you find the right solutions, solutions that will work best for you and your particular financial situation.

We also pour the money you save at our bank right back into our community to help both local residents and businesses. So, when you save with us you're not only building security for your own future, you're also helping the other members of your community build their futures.

Let's face it, as a HOMETOWN BANK our main interest is right here in this community, OUR community, because in the final analysis we help ourselves and our own lives in helping our hometown grow.

Wed In Double Ring Ceremony

The marriage of Miss Brenda Gayle Nash, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Nash to Donald Kenneth Chandler, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Chandler, took place June 30 at 6 o'clock at Plain Run Manor, Appomattox, home of the bride's parents.

The Reverend H. Doyle Chauncey, pastor of Liberty Baptist Church, officiated in the double ring ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a wedding gown of white silk organza. Venise lace and seed pearls enhanced the bodice, defined the waistline and edged the cuffed sleeves. The raised waistline fell into a chapel length train, with a bias ruffle and appliques and venise lace adorned the skirt. Her picture hat was detailed with a silk illusion veil.

She carried a small Bible covered with white venise lace, crowned with a nosegay of daisies and baby's breath.

Mrs. Diana Harvey of Evergreen, cousin of the bride, was Matron of Honor. She wore an empire waist floor length gown of mint green, with sheer contrasting sleeves. She carried a shasta daisy with ribbon.

Bridesmaids were Miss Cheryl Conner of Appomattox and Miss Tonya Gryder of Lynchburg, cousins of the bride. Miss Dorlisa Roach and Miss Merry Wright of Appomattox, friends of the bride. They wore mint green gowns and carried shasta daisies which matched the Matron of Honor.

Mr. William Harvey of Evergreen, friend of the groom, was best man.

Ushers were Mike Lewis of Appomattox, cousin of the groom, Gary Nash of Lynchburg, and Bentley Nash, brothers of the bride.

For the occasion Mrs. Nash, mother of the bride, wore a floor length pale yellow gown of quiana.

Mrs. Chandler, mother of the groom, selected a pastel blue floor length gown of polyester.

Miss Patricia Chandler, sister of the groom, kept the bridal book and Mrs. James A. Conner, Jr., aunt of the bride, was Director of Ceremonies. Miss Faith Vaughan of Pamplin was organist.

Following the wedding, a reception was held on the lawn at the home of the bride. Mrs. Judy Conner and Mrs. Elsie Burrell, aunts of the bride, served at the reception table.

After a wedding trip, the couple will reside in Appomattox, Virginia.

Shower Honors Bride-Elect

On June 27th a shower honored Miss Kathie Garris, bride-elect of Henry T. Pierce, at the home of Mrs. Russell A. Conner.

Hostessss for the event were Mrs. T. Wayne Timberlake, Mrs. T. E. Conner, Mrs. Allen Torrence, Mrs. Russell A. Conner, and Mrs. James D. Torrence.

Guests included Mrs. Owen B. Garris, mother of the bride-elect; Mrs. Henry G. Pierce, mother of the groom; Mrs. Russell C. Conner, grandmother of the bride-elect; and friends and relatives.
